Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund’s investment objective is medium term capital growth through investing in companies whose shares offer high growth rates that operate in the mining, oil and gas sectors or in the exploration of these sectors or in companies which operate in the manure, paper and forestry sectors.

The Fund intends to invest in natural resource companies on a global scale but mainly in companies listed in Canada, USA, Australia, England and South Africa.

The Fund shall not invest more than 30% of assets in bonds with a low credit quality (below investment grade) or in convertible bonds

The Fund may invest up to 30% of the assets in exploration equities, which are equities of companies actively seeking to discover a natural resource.

The Fund may invest in financial derivatives instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes such as options, warrants and forward foreign exchange contracts.

The Fund does not intend to issue dividends but instead will reinvest any accumulated income in shares for the benefit of the investor.

For full investment objectives and policy details, please refer to the section ‘Investment Objective and Policy’ in the Fund’s Prospectus

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator is calculated on the basis of the unit price volatility (the ups and downs of its value) over the prior 5 years.

The risk and reward indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication for the future risk profile of the Fund. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.
The Fund is in category 7 because of the high range and frequency of price movements of the underlying investments the Fund invests in.

The value of your investment in the Fund may be affected by the following risks:

- The value of investments may fall as well as rise and you may not get back the money you invested.
- The Fund will invest in companies that are exposed to risks associated with the natural resource sector such as price and market volatility in all aspects of the supply chain, existence and availability of reserves and competition in the global market.
- The Fund may invest some of its assets in unquoted securities or quoted securities for which there is no reliable price source available. Estimates of the fair value of such investments are inherently difficult to establish and are the subject of substantial uncertainty.
- Assets of the Fund may be denominated in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the base currency and the currency of such assets may lead to a fall in the value of the Fund’s assets as expressed in the base currency.
- The Fund can invest in derivatives. These instruments have additional risks such as legal risk or liquidity risk (the inability to sell the contract due to lack of buyers in the market). These risks can have adverse impacts on the overall value of the Fund.
- For a complete overview of all risks attached to this Fund investors should refer to the ‘Risk Factors’ section in the Prospectus.
